Peer Review Process

Reviewers, plus editorial comments, will review any accepted manuscript. The author is required to revise the manuscript according to the reviewer and editors comments. Editor team will process it for later publication. The review process can be separately described, as shown below.

Plagiarism Screening

In publishing, Jurnal Studi Al-Qur'an (JSQ) strongly against any case of plagiarism on its own merits. JSQ commits to deterring plagiarism, including self-plagiarism.

The authors should ensure that they have written entirely original works, and if the authors have used the work and/or words of others, this has been appropriately cited or quoted. Papers found with such problems are automatically rejected, and authors are so advised.

Also, significant parts of the work have not been published. The author also respects the Author Guidelines of JSQ regarding the redundant, duplicate or fraudulent publication entirely.

Before the author submits the manuscript to Jurnal Studi Al-Qur'an (JSQ), please check first to use a plagiarism checker. When submitting a published article for an originality check, Jurnal Studi Al-Qur'an (JSQ) recommends using Turnitin Plagiarism Scanner from <http://turnitin.com>. It is totally free and easy to use step-by-step process—the similarity rate allowed in the Jurnal Studi Al-Qur'an (JSQ) a maximum of 20 per cent. Before using Turnitin for the first time, we highly recommend that the author reads the instruction to use this plagiarism detector. Jurnal Studi Al-Qur'an (JSQ) also recommends using Turnitin Plagiarism Scanner from Plagiarism with the minimum unique 70 per cent.
