Author Guidelines

Jurnal Studi Al-Qur'an (JSQ) is a 3-accredited journal published biannually in January and July. Jurnal Studi Al-Qur'an (JSQ) contains scientific articles, research, community society research, and students' theses reviewing social and religious problems and education issues using the tafsir thematic perspective and Islamic study approach.

The journal invites scholars and experts working in all disciplines of Islamic Studies. Articles should be original, research-based, unpublished, and not under review for possible publication in other journals. All submitted papers are subject to review by the editors.

Jurnal Studi Al-Qur'an (JSQ) covers broader Islamic studies, which include the Study of the Qur'an, Quranic Exegesis, Hadith, Islamic Philosophy, Theology, Islamic Education, Dakwah, Islamic Economy, Languages related to Islam, and Islamic Mysticism. Jurnal Studi Al-Qur'an (JSQ) was first published in 2005 as a printed edition with P-ISSN 0216-1648. In 2013, it published an online version with an E-ISSN.

Peer Review Process

Reviewers, plus editorial comments, will review any accepted manuscript. The author must revise the manuscript according to the reviewer and editor's comments. The editor team will process it for later publication. The review process can be separately described, as shown below.

Plagiarism Screening

In publishing, Jurnal Studi Al-Qur'an (JSQ) is firmly against any case of plagiarism on its own merits. JSQ commits to deterring plagiarism, including self-plagiarism.

The authors should ensure that they have written entirely original works, and if the authors have used the work and words of others, this has been appropriately cited or quoted. Papers found with such problems are automatically rejected, and authors are so advised. Also, significant parts of the work have yet to be published. The author also entirely respects the Author Guidelines of JSQ regarding redundant, duplicate, or fraudulent publication.

Before the author submits the manuscript to Jurnal Studi Al-Qur'an (JSQ), please first check for plagiarism using a plagiarism checker. When submitting a published article for an originality check, Jurnal Studi Al-Qur'an (JSQ) recommends using Turnitin Plagiarism Scanner from <http://turnitin.com>. It is a free and easy-to-use step-by-step process—the similarity rate allowed in the Jurnal Studi Al-Qur'an (JSQ) is a maximum of 20 percent. Before using Turnitin for the first time, we highly recommend that the author read the instructions for using this plagiarism detector. Jurnal Studi Al-Qur'an (JSQ) also suggests using the Turnitin Plagiarism Scanner from Plagiarism with a minimum unique 70 percent.
